An Act respecting the Canadian Pacific Railway Company (Branch Lines.)

[Assented to 10th April, 1930.]

WHEREAS the Canadian Pacific Railway Company has by its petition prayed for the passing of an Act authorizing it to construct certain lines of railway as hereinafter set forth, and it is expedient to grant the prayer of the said petition: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. The Canadian Pacific Railway Company, hereinafter called "the Company," may within two years after the passing of this Act commence to construct the following lines of railway:—

- (a) From a point on the Taber subdivision of the Company's railway at or near Tempest, in township nine, range nineteen, west of the fourth meridian, thence in a generally southeasterly direction to a point in or near township eight, range eighteen, west of the fourth meridian, all in the province of Alberta; From a point at or near Tempest, thence southeasterly.
- (b) From a point on the Swift Current southeasterly branch of the Company's railway at or near Dunelm, in township fourteen, range fourteen, west of the third meridian, thence in a generally southwesterly and westerly direction to a point in or near township ten, range twenty-one, west of the third meridian, all in the province of Saskatchewan; From a point at or near Dunelm, thence southwesterly.
- (c) From a point on the Pheasant Hills branch of the Company's railway at or near Duval, in township twenty-five, range twenty-two, west of the second meridian, thence in a generally easterly direction to a point in or near township twenty-five, range seventeen or eighteen, west of the second meridian, all in the province of Saskatchewan; From a point at or near Duval, thence easterly.
- (d) From a point in or near township forty-six or forty-seven, range fourteen or fifteen, west of the third meridian, thence in a generally easterly and northeasterly direction to a point at or near Shellbrook, in township forty-nine, range three or four, west of the third meridian, all in the province of Saskatchewan; From a point in or near township 46 or 47 to a point at or near Shellbrook.

From Ste.
Jeanne de l'Ile Perrot to Windmill Point.

(e) From a point on the Ontario and Quebec Railway east of Vaudreuil station, in the parish of Ste. Jeanne de l'Ile Perrot, thence in a generally southeasterly direction to a point at or near Windmill Point in the said parish, all in the county of Vaudreuil, province of Quebec;

From a point between Belair station and Quebec to Wolfe's Cove.

(f) From a point on its line of railway between Belair station and the terminus thereof in the city of Quebec, thence by the most feasible route, by tunnel or otherwise, to a point at or near Wolfe's Cove, on the river St. Lawrence; and may within five years after the passing of this Act complete the said lines of railway, and, if within the said periods respectively, any of the said lines of railway is or are not commenced, or is or are not completed and put in operation, the powers of construction conferred upon the Company by Parliament shall cease and be null and void as respects so much of such of the said lines of railway as shall then not have been commenced or completed, as the case may be.

Issue of securities.

2. (1) The Company may issue bonds, debentures or other securities to the extent of fifty thousand dollars per mile, constructed or under contract to be constructed, of the lines of railway described in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d) and (e) of section one hereof, and to an amount not exceeding the cost of the line of railway described in paragraph (f) of section one hereof.

Application
of Railway Act, R.S., c. 170.
Bonds, mortgages and borrowing
powers.

(2) Any such issue shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the Company's Special Act as defined in section two of the Railway Act, and in all respects not inconsistent with those provisions, the provisions of section one hundred and thirty-two (except those of subsection one thereof) to one hundred and forty-four, both inclusive, of the Railway Act, shall also apply to any such issue.

Issue of consolidated debenture stock in lieu of bonds.

3. In lieu of the bonds, the issue of which is authorized by this Act, the Company, being first authorized so to do by at least two-thirds of the votes of the shareholders present or represented at an annual meeting, or at a special meeting of the shareholders duly called for the purpose, may issue consolidated debenture stock to the same amount, the holders of which shall have equal rights in all respects and shall rank pari passu with the holders of such consolidated debenture stock as the Company has, before the passing of this Act, been authorized to issue.

CHAP. 54.

An Act respecting the Canadian Pacific Railway Company (Division of Capital Stock.)

[Assented to 10th April, 1930.]

WHEREAS the Canadian Pacific Railway Company has by its petition prayed that an Act may be passed to change the par value of its ordinary capital stock and to increase the number of its directors, and it is expedient to grant the prayer of the said petition: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.
1881, c. 1;
1902, c. 52;
1910, c. 81;
1920, c. 76.

1. Notwithstanding anything in section two of its charter, as set out in schedule A of chapter one of the statutes of 1881, the Canadian Pacific Railway Company may by by-law approved by at least two-thirds of the votes of its shareholders present or represented at an annual meeting or at a special meeting duly called for the purpose, change the par value of shares of its ordinary capital stock from one hundred dollars each to twenty-five dollars each. Every person holding at the time of such change a share or shares of the par value of one hundred dollars each shall thereafter be deemed to be the holder of the same aggregate amount of the stock divided into shares of twenty-five dollars each, and on surrender of the share certificate or share certificates then held by him shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor a new certificate or certificates for the same aggregate amount of the stock expressed in shares of twenty-five dollars. From and after such change every five pounds sterling of preferred stock shall give the same rights as to voting as are given by a share of twenty-five dollars of ordinary stock.

Par value of shares may be changed from $100 to $25.

2. Section six of the said charter, as enacted by section twelve of chapter fifty-two of the statutes of 1902, as amended by section nine of chapter eighty-one of the statutes of 1910 and by section one of chapter seventy-six of the statutes of 1920, is hereby repealed and the following is substituted therefor:

Number of directors increased,
etc.

Election of directors.

Qualification.

Number of directors.

Term of office.

“6. The directors of the Company shall be elected by ballot at the shareholders’ meeting and shall each hold shares of the stock of the Company aggregating in par value at least twenty-five thousand dollars. They shall be subject to the same conditions as the directors appointed by or under the authority of the last preceding section. The number of directors shall be such, not exceeding twenty-four, as shall be fixed by by-law, and may be altered from time to time in like manner. They shall remain in office for the period or respective periods fixed by by-law, approved of by the shareholders, but the terms of office of at least one-fifth of the directors shall expire each year, and such retiring directors shall be eligible for re-election.”

The directors may issue as paid-up stock shares of the capital stock of the Company in payment of any business, franchises, undertakings, rights, powers, privileges, letters patent, inventions, real estate, stocks, assets and other properties which the Company may lawfully acquire, and may, for such considerations allot and hand over such shares to any person or corporation or its shareholders or directors; and any such issue or allotment of stock shall be binding upon the Company and such stock shall be not assessable for calls; nor shall the holder thereof be liable in any way thereon; or the Company may pay therefor wholly or partly in paid-up shares or wholly or partly in bonds and debentures or as may be agreed upon.

Agreements with other companies.

15. Subject to the provisions of the Railway Act, the Company may enter into agreements with any other company or companies for any of the purposes specified in sections one hundred and fifty-one and one hundred and fifty-four of the Railway Act.

Time for commencement and completion of bridge.

16. The said bridge or bridges shall be commenced within three years after the plans therefor have been approved by the Governor in Council and shall be completed within three years after such commencement otherwise the powers granted by this Act shall cease and be null and void as respects so much of the undertaking as then remains uncompleted: Provided, however, that if such approval is not obtained within two years after the passing of this Act, the powers granted for the construction of the said bridge or bridges shall cease and be null and void.

When
property, etc., to be conveyed to Dominion.

17. When the corporate obligations and stock of the Company and of any company with which this Company has joined or united in the construction of the said bridge or bridges, have been retired, in the manner prescribed in their by-laws, then the said bridge or bridges and the approaches thereto and all appurtenant structures, property, property rights and franchises shall be conveyed by the said Company, its successors and assigns, without cost or expense, to the Dominion of Canada or to such province, municipality or agency thereof as the Governor in Council may designate, and all rights, title and interest of said Company its successors and assigns, therein shall then cease and determine: Provided always that the period for payment of the obligations of the companies, and the retirement of their capital stock and any extension thereof and the provisions of the companies' by-laws in respect thereof has been previously approved by the Governor in Council.

Rights of municipalities saved.

18. Notwithstanding anything in this Act the Company shall not locate, construct or operate any of the works mentioned in this Act upon or connect the same with any highway, street or other public place, without first obtaining the consent expressed by by-law of the municipality having jurisdiction over such highway, street or other public place, and upon terms to be agreed with such municipality, and failing such consent, within sixty days from the date of the request made in writing by the Company for such consent to the said municipality, then upon such terms as are fixed by the Board of Railway Commissioners for Canada.

19. The employment of labour in the construction, maintenance and supervision of the said bridge or bridges, shall be subject to the terms and conditions of the fair wage clauses set forth in the Order in Council, No. 1206 of June 7, 1922, and any amendments thereto. So far as it may be practicable to do so, Canadian materials must be used in the construction of the said bridge or bridges, and a certified statement shall be sent weekly to the Department of Labour giving the names and addresses of firms supplying materials and the quantity thereof. Labour
materials.

20. In this Act unless the context otherwise requires the expression "the said bridge or bridges" means the bridge or bridges approaches, lands, works and facilities hereby authorized. "Bridge" defined.

Recovery and disposal.

R.S., c. 23.

6. (1) The Company may acquire the whole or any part of the assets of and may assume the obligations and liabilities of Industrial Loan and Investment Corporation, incorporated by Letters Patent under the law of the province of Quebec, and of The People's Thrift and Finance Company, Limited, incorporated by Letters Patent under the law of the province of Ontario; and may also acquire and exercise such of the rights and powers of the said corporations, or either of them, as are not in excess of or in conflict with the rights and powers granted to the Company under the provisions of this Act; and in the event of any such acquisition and assumption the Company shall perform and discharge all such duties, obligations and liabilities of the said corporations in respect of the rights and property acquired as are not performed and discharged by the said corporations. Acquisition of assets, rights and powers of certain provincial corporations.

Limitations as to exercise of rights and powers so acquired.

Discharge of duties, obligations, etc.

Approval by Treasury Board.

(2) An agreement between the Company and either of the corporations mentioned in sub-section one of this section shall not become effective until it has been submitted to and approved by the Treasury Board; and the Treasury Board shall not approve of such agreement until it is satisfied that the agreement has been approved by the votes of at least two-thirds of the shareholders present or represented by proxy at a special general meeting of the corporation and of the Company, respectively, parties to the said agreement.

Application
of R.S., 1927,
c. 28.

Exceptions.

An Act to incorporate The Portage la Prairie Mutual Insurance Company.

[Assented to 30th May, 1930.]

WHEREAS a petition has been presented praying that Preamble.
it be enacted as hereinafter set forth, and it is expedient to grant the prayer of the said petition: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. Edwin Herbert Muir, farmer, Mathew Gillis Tidsbury, farmer, Peter McArthur, farmer, James McKenzie, farmer, Joseph William Yuill, farmer, Joseph Trimble, farmer, Robert McDermott, farmer, all of the rural municipality of Portage la Prairie, in the province of Manitoba, together with such persons as become policyholders in the Company, are incorporated under the name of "The Portage la Prairie Mutual Insurance Company", hereinafter called "the Company". Incorporation. Corporate name.

2. The head office of the Company shall be in the city of Portage la Prairie in the province of Manitoba. Head office.

3. The persons named in section one of this Act shall be the provisional directors of the Company. Provisional directors.

4. The Company may make contracts for any of the following classes of insurance:— Classes of insurance authorized.

- (a) fire insurance;
- (b) automobile insurance;
- (c) plate glass insurance;
- (d) sprinkler leakage insurance;
- (e) hail insurance;
- (f) guarantee insurance;
- (g) bond insurance;
- (h) burglary insurance;
- (i) accident insurance;

- (j) sickness insurance;
- (k) explosion insurance;
- (l) tornado insurance;

upon the cash premium or upon the mutual system, but except as hereinafter provided, the amount of insurance written in any year on the cash premium system shall not exceed one-half of the amount written during the said year on the mutual system, nor shall the amount of insurance in force at any time on the cash premium system exceed one-half of the amount in force at the said time on the mutual system.

Applications
before commencing business.

5. The Company shall not commence business until bona fide applications have been received for insurance on the mutual system to an amount of at least ten million dollars.

Limitation to cease when surplus of $350,000 maintained.

6. (1) When the Company shall acquire a surplus to the amount of three hundred and fifty thousand dollars and so long as the Company shall maintain a surplus of three hundred and fifty thousand dollars, the provisions of section four of this Act respecting the limitation of the amount of insurance written and in force on the cash premium system shall cease to apply.

"Surplus"
defined.

(2) In this section the word "surplus" means the excess of assets over liabilities including the reserve of unearned premiums calculated pro rata for the unexpired term of all policies of the Company in force.

Board of directors.

7. (1) There shall be elected at the first annual meeting and at each subsequent annual meeting a board of not less than nine nor more than twenty-one directors who shall hold office as hereinafter provided.

Number of directors elected by policyholders.

(2) The Company shall, by by-law passed not less than three months prior to the holding of its second annual meeting after the passing of this Act determine the number of directors to be elected at said annual meeting by the policyholders. The Company may by the said by-law provide that the directors shall be elected for one, two, or three years. If the by-law provides for two years' or three years' term of office it may also provide either (a) that the term of office shall be continuous for all directors, or (b) that a certain proportion not less than one-third shall retire annually. All retiring directors shall be eligible for re-election.

Who may be elected a director.

8. Any policy-holder who holds a policy or policies to the amount of at least one thousand dollars who is not in default in respect of any premium or any assessment on his deposit or premium note and who has paid in cash all liabilities incurred by him to the Company shall be eligible to be elected as a director, but he shall cease to be such director if the amount of his insurance as aforesaid becomes reduced below the sum of one thousand dollars.

9. At all meetings of the Company each policy-holder who is not in default in respect of his cash premium or any assessment on his premium note shall have one vote for each one thousand dollars of insurance provided in his policy. Votes.

10. All the assets of the Company including the deposit or premium notes given by policy-holders shall be liable for losses occurring on all the policies of the Company. A policy-holder of the Company shall be liable in respect of any loss or other claim or demand against the Company to the extent of the amount unpaid either upon his premium note or upon his cash premium and no more. Liability for losses.

11. In the event of the winding up of the Company if the assets on hand at the date of winding up exclusive of the unearned portion of the premium notes of the policy-holders on the mutual system are insufficient to pay all the liabilities of the Company in full, an assessment shall be made on the said policy-holders in respect of their premium notes to an amount not exceeding the unpaid balance of such notes. Winding-up.

12. All premium notes and undertakings belonging to the Company shall be assessed under the direction of the board of directors at such intervals from their respective dates, and for such sums, as the directors shall determine; and every member of the Company or person who has given a premium note or undertaking shall pay the sums from time to time payable by him to the Company during the continuance of his policy, in accordance with such assessment. Assessments.

13. If the assessment on the premium note or undertaking upon any policy be not paid within thirty days after the day on which the said assessment shall become due, the policy of insurance for which said assessment shall have been made shall be null and void as respects all claim for losses occurring during the time of such non-payment: If assessment be not paid.

Provided always, that the said policy shall be reinstated when such assessment shall have been paid, unless the secretary give notice to the contrary to the assessed party, but nothing shall relieve the assured party from his liability to pay such assessment or any subsequent assessments. Proviso.

Failure to pay assessment.

14. If any member or other person who has given a premium note or undertaking shall, for thirty days after the due date mentioned in the notice of assessment neglect or refuse to pay said assessment, the Company may sue for and recover the same with costs of suit, and such proceeding shall not be a waiver of any forfeiture incurred by such non-payment.

Loss of property.

15. If there be any loss on property insured by the Company, the board of directors may deduct the amount of the premium note less any paid assessments thereon, from the payment due under the loss and retain the amount so deducted until the time has expired for which the insurance has been made, and at the expiration of said time the insured shall have the right to demand and receive such part of the retained sum as shall not have been assessed against.

Distribution of earnings.

16. The directors may from time to time out of the earnings of the Company distribute equitably to the holders of policies issued by the Company such sums as in the judgment of the directors are proper and justifiable.

Acquisition of rights and property of provincial company.

17. (1) The Company may acquire by agreement to insure or otherwise the whole or any part of the rights of and property and may assume the obligations and liabilities of the Portage la Prairie Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Company incorporated by letters patent issued by the Lieutenant Governor in Council for the province of Manitoba and dated the second day of October A.D. 1884 under The Mutual Fire Insurance Act, being chapter one hundred and one of the Revised Statutes of Manitoba, 1913, hereinafter called "the Provincial Company"; and in the event of such acquisition and assumption the Company shall perform and discharge all such duties, obligations and liabilities of the Provincial Company in respect to the rights and property acquired as are not performed and discharged by the Provincial Company.

Agreement
to be approved.

(2) No agreement between the Company and the Provincial Company providing for such acquisition and assumption shall become effective until it has been submitted to and approved by the Treasury Board.

Offer deemed application
for insurance.

(3) An offer by the Provincial Company to make such an agreement shall be deemed to be a bona fide application for insurance for the purposes of section five of this Act.

Date of coming into force.

18. This Act shall come into force on a date to be specified by the Superintendent of Insurance in a notice in the Canada Gazette, and such notice shall not be given until this Act has been approved by a resolution adopted by at least two-thirds of the votes of the members of the Provincial Company present or represented by proxy at a meeting duly called for that purpose, nor until the Superintendent of Insurance has been satisfied by such evidence as he may require that such approval has been given and that the Provincial Company has ceased to do business, or will cease to do business forthwith upon a licence being issued to the Company.

19. Subject to any exception hereinbefore provided the R.S., c. 101. Insurance Act shall apply to the Company.

cancelled.

3. In exchange for shares of old stock held at the date of the commencement of this Act, the Company shall issue, as paid for in full and not subject to calls thereon, shares of new stock as follows:—

Exchange of old shares for new.

(a) For each share of old stock which has been paid for in full, three shares of new stock;

Paid-up shares.

(b) For each share of old stock upon which eighty per cent of its par value has been paid, two shares of new stock, or—

80% paid.

at the option of the holder of such share, one share and one half of a share of new stock and ten dollars in cash;

Option.

70% paid. (c) For each share of old stock upon which seventy per cent of its par value has been paid, one share and one half of a share of new stock.

Fractions of shares. (2) For the purposes of such exchange, the Company may purchase, and shareholders shall sell halves of shares to the Company at the par value thereof; and the Company shall sell within two years from the date of the purchase thereof any half-share so acquired.

Extinction of liability to Company's creditors in respect of calls not made on the old stock. 4. The individual liability of every holder of shares of the old stock for payment to creditors of the Company of an amount equal to the difference, immediately before the date of commencement of this Act, between the amount paid upon such shares held by him and the par value thereof at that time, one hundred dollars each, is hereby extinguished as at and from that time.

(i) subject to the provisions of sections seventeen and eighteen, to acquire the whole or any part of the rights and property, and to assume the obligations and liabilities of The Saint Nicholas Mutual Benefit Association, a corporation incorporated under the Companies Act of the province of Manitoba, hereinafter called "the provincial Society."

Provided, however, that the amounts mentioned in paragraphs (g) and (h) may be, from time to time, increased pursuant to the provisions of the Insurance Act.

R.S., c. 101.

5. Only persons considered by the Society to be of Ukrainian origin and who are of the Greek-Catholic faith, in communion with the Holy See of Rome, shall be admitted as members of the Society. Provided that the Society shall, upon the conclusion of any agreement such as provided for in Section 17 hereof, admit as members all persons who are then members in good standing of the Provincial Society as at that time constituted.

Control of society.

6. The society shall be governed by a General Convention, which shall constitute the final legislative body of the Society.

General convention to govern.

7. The General Convention shall consist of:—

(a) The members of the Supreme Executive for the time being;

(b) delegates elected by the various branches, who shall be elected in accordance with the by-laws of the Society;

but a member who holds any office in any other similar organization, shall be ineligible as a delegate.

Composition of General Convention.

8. The affairs of the Society shall be managed, administered and governed by the Supreme Executive, which shall be composed of: The supreme president, the vice-president, the recording secretary and his deputy, the financial secretary and his deputy, the supreme treasurer and his deputy, the spiritual advisor, four lay-advisors, three members of the auditing committee, a general organizer, and of such other officers or persons, if any, as the Supreme Executive.

by-laws from time to time provide, all of whom shall be elected by the General Convention, and shall hold office until their successors are elected, at the next Convention.

Provisional members of Supreme Executives.

9. The present officers and members of the Supreme Executive of the provincial Society shall be the officers and members of the Supreme Executive of the Society, until their successors are elected, pursuant to the provisions of this Act and of the by-laws and constitution of the Society.

Additional
powers.

10. (1) The Society shall have power, from time to time, to make, amend and repeal by-laws and regulations for governing the election of officers and trustees and the prescribing and defining of their duties and powers, the holding of meetings, the admission of members and the termination of membership, the fixing and refixing of the amounts of premiums, dues and assessments to be paid by the members, and generally all matters relating to any of the activities, business or affairs of the Society.

Existing
by-laws.

(2) The existing by-laws and regulations of the Provincial Society, in so far as they are applicable and subject to the provisions hereof, shall govern the affairs of the Society and the members thereof, from the date of its incorporation until and including the date of the first General Convention of the Society.

General fund.

11. (1) The Society may maintain a general fund, to which shall be credited all dues and other sums intended to be used for the payment of expenses of administration and all expenses of the Society shall be payable out of such fund including the expenses arising from the exercise of the powers conferred by paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d), (e) and (f) of section four of this Act.

Allocation to general
fund.

(2) The Society may make provision in its by-laws whereby, in the event of there being a deficiency in the general fund and a surplus above all liabilities in any one or more of the benefit funds, the General Convention may, in any year, provide for the allocation to the general fund of such portion as the actuary of the Society may recommend, of the premiums or assessments falling due during the succeeding twelve months, in any benefit fund or funds in which there is a surplus, the amount so allocated to the general fund during the said period not to exceed, however, two months' premiums in the said benefit fund or funds.

Notice.

(3) Notice of intention to make an allocation to the general fund of any premiums or assessments or portions thereof, as provided in the last preceding subsection, shall be given by mail, to the members of the Society, at least one month before such allocation is made.

(4) If, at any time, the general fund, or the surplus in any other fund, becomes exhausted, or is in danger of becoming exhausted, the General Convention, or any special Convention, shall have power to make a proportionate assessment upon each member in the fund and such assessment shall thereupon be paid by each such member.

Proportionate assessment if fund becomes exhausted.

12. The Society may make provision in its constitution, whereby such portion as shall be approved by the actuary of the Society, of the surplus above all liabilities in any benefit fund, may be applied to grant new or additional benefits to the members of the Society, or to the remission of premiums, or portions thereof.

Application of surplus.

13. The Society may make provision in its constitution for the granting of loans on policies (or certificates of insurance) for the purpose of paying the premiums thereof, and with respect to policies or contracts of insurance which have been in force for three years, for the granting of paid-up policies and automatic non-forfeiture privileges, or other equities or benefits in lieu thereof.

Loans on policies.

14. The funds necessary for the procuring of any properties required for halls or other premises, to be used for the proper housing of the Society and its members and for the carrying on of its activities, may be expended out of the general fund, or raised through special assessments or donations, or in any other way that the General or a Special Convention may direct.

Acquisition of real estate for housing, etc.

15. All properties purchased with the funds of the Society shall be the property of and shall be vested in the Society as a whole, and shall be administered, managed and controlled by the Supreme Executive.

Properties purchased to be vested in the Society.

16. No property of the Society shall, under any circumstances, pass into the private ownership of any member or members of the Society as an individual or individuals, but all such property shall be and always remain the property and estate of the Society as a whole and shall be used exclusively for the work of the Society, and to promote its objects.

Property to be used for the work of the Society.

17. (1) The Society may acquire the whole or any part of the rights and property and may assume the obligations and liabilities of the provincial Society, and in the event of such acquisition and assumption, the Society shall perform and discharge all such duties, obligations and liabilities of the provincial Society, in respect to the rights and property acquired, as are not performed and discharged by the provincial Society.

Society may acquire rights and property of Provincial Society.

Agreement
to be approved of.

(2) No agreement between the Society and the provincial Society, providing for such acquisition and assumption, shall become effective until it has been submitted to and approved of by the Treasury Board and the Treasury Board shall not approve of it if it appears to the Board that more than one-third of the members of the provincial Society, present and voting at a meeting called for the purpose of considering such agreement, are opposed to it.

Coming
into force.

18. This Act shall come into force on a date to be specified by the Superintendent of Insurance, in a notice published in the Canada Gazette, and such notice shall not be given until this Act has been approved by a resolution adopted by at least two-thirds of the votes of the members of the provincial Society present or represented by proxy at a meeting duly called for the purpose, nor until the Superintendent of Insurance has been satisfied, by such evidence as he may require, that such approval has been given and that the provincial Society has ceased to do business, or will cease to do business forthwith upon a licence being issued to the Society.

R.S., c. 101.

19. Except as hereinbefore otherwise provided, the Insurance Act shall apply to the Society.

An Act respecting a certain patent of Edgar D. Crump.

[Assented to 30th May, 1930.]

WHEREAS Edgar D. Crump, of the city of Edmonton, Preamble.
in the province of Alberta, hereinafter called "the Petitioner", has by his petition represented that a patent, number 186018, for new and useful improvements in tourniquets, was granted on the thirteenth day of August, 1918, under the provisions of the Patent Act, chapter sixty-nine of the Revised Statutes of Canada, 1906, to the inventor R.S., 1906,
c. 69.
of the said improvements, Charles F. Dorsey; that the said patent was so issued subject to the payment of renewal fees at the end of six years from the date of issue; that the said patent was assigned by the said Charles F. Dorsey to the Petitioner; that no notification was received by the said Charles F. Dorsey, the patentee, from his attorney as to the date upon which the renewal fees became due on the said patent, and that by reason of the non-payment of the said renewal fees, the said patent expired at the end of the thirteenth day of August, 1924; and whereas by his petition, the Petitioner has prayed that it may be enacted as hereinafter set forth, and it is expedient to grant the prayer of the said petition: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

1. If the said Edgar D. Crump, or his assignee, or other legal representative makes within three months after the date of the passing of this Act, an application to the Commissioner of Patents for an order restoring and reviving the patent mentioned in the preamble to this Act notwithstanding failure to pay renewal fees as aforesaid, the provisions of section forty-seven of the Patent Act, chapter one

An Act respecting a certain patent of The R. M. Hollingshead Company.

[Assented to 30th May, 1930.]

WHEREAS The R. M. Hollingshead Company, a corporation incorporated under the laws of the State of New Jersey, one of the United States of America, and hereinafter called "the petitioner," has by its petition represented that an application for a patent of invention for new and useful improvements in a fitting for quick detachable couplings, was filed in the Patent Office of Canada on the eleventh day of May, A.D. 1927, under the serial number 325,245, by one George W. DeLoache of the city of Dayton, in the state of Ohio, one of the United States of America: that the fee of fifteen dollars payable under the provisions of section forty-three of The Patent Act, on filing the application, was duly paid; that the patent was allowed by the Commissioner of Patents on the first day of May, A.D. 1928; that the petitioner is the owner of that application by mesne assignments for good and valuable consideration; that under those provisions a further fee of twenty dollars became due and payable within six months from the date of notice of the allowance of patent, but was not so paid by the assignors of the application, or any of them, and thereupon the application became forfeited; that neither the petitioner nor anyone acting on his behalf in the premises had such notice or became aware of the failure to make that payment as so provided, or of the said forfeiture, until after the lapse of the period within which under the said provisions application might have been made to the Commissioner of Patents for the restoration of the forfeited application and the grant of a patent thereon: and whereas by its petition the petitioner has prayed that it may be enacted as hereinafter set forth and it is expedient to grant the prayer of the said petition: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

Power to Commissioner of Patents to reinstate application
for patent.

R.S. 1927,
c. 150, s. 43.

1. If the said The R. M. Hollingshead Company, or its assignee or other legal representative, makes, within three months after the date of the passing of this Act, an application to the Commissioner of Patents for an order restoring and reviving the application for a patent mentioned in the preamble to this Act, notwithstanding failure to pay the final fee as aforesaid, the provisions of section forty-three of the Patent Act, chapter one hundred and fifty of the Revised Statutes, 1927, except the six months' limitation of time for such application contained in that section, shall apply to that application for a patent and, complying with these provisions, the Commissioner of Patents may make either an order restoring and reviving that application or an order dismissing that application.

Rights saved.

2. If, during the period when the application was forfeited and before the date of publication of the notice of the petitioner's intention to apply to Parliament for the passing of this Act, any person has acquired any right in respect of the inventions to which that application had reference, then, in the event of the Commissioner of Patents making, as provided for by section one of this Act, an order restoring and reviving that application, every such right shall be deemed to have had and to have the same force and effect as if this Act had not been passed; but nothing in this section shall be deemed to derogate from the provisions contained in sections seven and eight of the Patent Act or to deprive the applicant of any benefit therefrom.

An Act respecting a certain patent of Stauntons Limited.

[Assented to 30th May, 1930.]

WHEREAS Stauntons Limited, a corporation created by Preamble.
Letters Patent under the provisions of The Ontario Companies Act, has by its petition represented that it has a plant in the city of Toronto and carries on business throughout Canada; that it is the owner of Canadian Patent number 163389, issued to Herbert C. Jarvis on the twenty-second day of June, 1915, under the provisions of the Patent Act, chapter sixty-nine of the Revised Statutes of Canada, 1906, for certain improvements in wall-paper rolls; that the said patent was duly assigned by the said Herbert C. Jarvis to Stauntons Limited; that the said patent will expire on the twenty-second day of June, 1933; and whereas the petitioner has prayed that it be enacted as hereinafter set forth, and it is expedient to grant the prayer of the said petition: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

R.S.C., 1906,
c. 69.

1. If the owner of the patent mentioned in the preamble to this Act, or the assignee or other legal representative of such owner makes, within three months from the date of the passing of this Act, an application to the Commissioner of Patents for an order extending the duration of that patent, notwithstanding the provisions of the Patent Act, chapter one hundred and fifty of the Revised Statutes of Canada, 1927, the Commissioner of Patents shall make an order extending the duration of that patent to the twenty-second day of June, 1938, and upon the making of such order that patent shall be good and shall avail the owner thereof or the assignee or other legal representative of such owner for the extended term hereby authorized.

Authority to the Commissioner of Patents to extend the duration of the patent for five years from the date on which it would otherwise expire.

An Act to amend An Act to incorporate the Canadian Bible Society auxiliary to the British and Foreign Bible Society.

[Assented to 30th May, 1930.]

WHEREAS the Canadian Bible Society auxiliary to the British and Foreign Bible Society has by its petition represented that it was duly incorporated by chapter seventy-four of the statutes of 1906 and has prayed that its name may be changed, and that the said chapter seventy-four may otherwise be amended as hereinafter set forth, and it is expedient to grant the prayer of the said petition: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Preamble.
1906, c. 74.

1. The name of the Canadian Bible Society auxiliary to the British and Foreign Bible Society (hereinafter called “the Society”) is changed to “The British and Foreign Bible Society in Canada and Newfoundland”, but such change in name shall not in any way impair, alter or affect the rights or liabilities of the Society or any bequest, gift or donation now made or which hereafter may be made to the Society whether by its original or its new name, or any suit or proceeding now pending or judgment existing either by or in favour of or against the Society and which notwithstanding such change in the name of the Society may be enforced and continued as if this Act had not been passed.

Name changed.
Existing rights not affected.

2. Section two of the said chapter seventy-four is amended by adding thereto the following subsections:—

“(2) The general board shall have power to adopt such constitution and by-laws not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act as it may deem necessary or expedient for carrying on and controlling its affairs, and may by such constitution and by-laws provide for the appointment of an executive committee and such other committees as it

Power to make constitution and by-laws and appoint committees.

may deem necessary or expedient, and may by its constitution and by-laws confer upon the executive committee and other committees and upon its officers such of its powers as it may from time to time deem proper.

Existing
constitution and by-laws continued.

(3) The constitution and by-laws of the Society at the date of the passing of this Act shall be and continue to be the constitution and by-laws of the Society until altered or amended under the provisions thereof, but no such alteration or amendment shall be contrary to law or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act."

3. Section five of the said chapter seventy-four is repealed and the following is substituted therefor:—

Amount of real estate Society may hold increased.

"5. The Society may acquire by purchase or otherwise, take, receive and hold conveyances, devises, bequests, and gifts of real and personal property or any real estate or interest therein in Canada, and may use, sell and dispose thereof and may apply the proceeds of such property for the purposes for which the Society has been organized: Provided, however, that the aggregate value of the real estate in Canada shall not exceed at any one time the sum of one million dollars, but the Society may also hold such real property or estate therein as is bona fide mortgaged to it by way of security or conveyed to it in satisfaction of debts or judgments recovered; and provided that the Society shall within ten years after the acquisition of any real property as aforesaid sell or otherwise dispose of so much as is not required for the use, occupation or other like purposes of the Society, but this proviso shall not be deemed in any wise to vary or affect any trust relating to such property: Provided, further, that the Secretary of State may direct that the time for sale or disposal of any such parcel of land or any estate or interest therein shall be extended for a further period or periods not to exceed five years: and provided also that any devise or any real property as aforesaid shall be subject to the laws respecting devises of real estate to religious corporations in force at the time of such devise in the province in which such real estate is situate so far as such laws are applicable. The provisions of this section with respect to the holding of real property shall be subject to any powers to hold real property that are or may be conferred upon the Society by the law of any province."
